

I pay for the traffice and weather service provided by XM radio and don't think the FCC or the public broadcasters have any right to dictate what XM provides or doesn't provide. I switch to XM because commercial radio doesn't provide the service when I want and need it. I have to put up with all their crap on their schedule.